The Rhymesayers Entertainment Scholarship Essay

As an IPR/Rhymesayers Entertainment Scholarship applicant you are asked to submit, as a part of your application, a 1,500-2,000 word essay describing why (in your own words) you believe that you are an ideal candidate for this award.

The ideal candidate will demonstrate:

- Creative aptitude
- The work ethic necessary for success in the music and/or entertainment industries
- An aspiration for service to the community
- An understanding of the role that an IPR education will play in the attainment of their goals
- An understanding of the value inherent to lifelong learning

All essays should be type written and free of grammatical, spelling and typographical errors.

If your application and essay are selected, you will have an opportunity to schedule a personal interview with the IPR selection committee to determine your eligibility for the scholarship.

Deadline Rhymesayers Entertainment Scholarship Applications must be postmarked no later than July 1,

Acceptance The school will review the pool of applications and essays submitted to determine the pool of applicants who will be asked to meet with the IPR Scholarship Selection Committee to complete an interview. The Committee will select up to five finalists from the interviews conducted. These five finalists will be presented to the artists and leadership from Rhymesayers Entertainment who will ultimately select the final recipient.

Scholarship applicants must consent to allow IPR and/or Rhymesayers Entertainment to use their name and/or likeness in advertising or promotional materials relating to Rhymesayers Entertainment, the scholarship program and/or its relationship with IPR. Scholarship recipients may be required to represent IPR and/or Rhymesayers Entertainment in promotional events related to the school, the scholarship program and/or its relationship with Rhymesayers Entertainment. Finally, recipients of this prestigious award will be expected to model appropriate behavior to their fellow students and community.

By completing this scholarship application, I consent to allow IPR and/or Rhymesayers Entertainment to use my name and/or likeness in advertising or promotional materials relating to Rhymesayers Entertainment, the scholarship program and/or its relationship with IPR. I understand that scholarship recipients may be required to represent IPR and/or Rhymesayers Entertainment in promotional events related to the school, the scholarship program and/or its relationship with Rhymesayers Entertainment. I also understand that this consent may be revoked, in writing to The Institute of Production and Recording, at any time. Finally I understand that to rescind this consent may terminate my continued eligibility for the scholarship.

As a Rhymesayers Entertainment Scholarship recipient, I understand and agree with the terms and responsibilities of the role as defined herein. I understand that upon meeting qualifications and successfully fulfilling the responsibilities, I may be considered to receive a Rhymesayers Entertainment Scholarship, as delineated above.
